DUKE ELLINGTON &
SOPHISTICATED LADIES

This musical revue, captured live at Broadway's Lunt-Fontanne Theatre, was nominated for 8 Tony Awards (including Best Musical) and winner of two-- Best Actor in a Musical and Best Costume Design. The Duke Ellington Orchestra knocks out an all-star score that includes "Take the "A" Train", "It Don't Mean a Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing)", "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" and "Satin Doll" among others. New York Times raved "... the musical is an Ellington celebration that just won't quit."

Get your groove on...the Magic Lantern Film Society presents the 1977 classic that defined an era, popularized disco music and skyrocketed John Travolta to superstardom. The Grammy winning score is one of the highest selling albums of all time. Saturday Night Fever stands out among a slew of disco related dance films because it is also a film with rich characters and superb performances in this textured coming of age story. And what could be more fun than a Disco party at the Cornerstone following the movie?! Rated R All Seats ONLY $5

Most Americans were unfamiliar with Monty Python's particular form of insanity until this comic gem arrived on our shores in 1975. Since then 'Monty Python's Flying Circus' and several feature films are now a staple of comic history. This classic parodies the legend of King Arthur's quest to find the Holy Grail and was the inspiration for the 2005 Tony Award-winning musical Spamalot. Come and howl with laughter until tears roll down your face. PG-13 All Seats ONLY $5

Thelma & Louise received six Academy Award nominations and won Best Original Screenplay. It stars Geena Davis as Thelma and Susan Sarandon as Louise, both nominated for the Academy Award for Best Actress. It also introduced filmgoers to Brad Pitt. Conceived as a female buddy film, this road adventure became very much a tale of female empowerment. This 1991 Oscar winner is presented by the Sun Valley Center as part of the "Wish You Were Here" exhibition. Rated R

In anticipation of the 2014 Winter Olympics, view astonishing alpine location photography and a young Robert Redford in one of his earliest starring roles in 1969's Downhill Racer. In a beautifully understated performance, Redford is a ruthlessly ambitious skier competing for Olympic gold, and Gene Hackman provides tough support as the coach who tries to temper the upstart's narcissistic drive for glory. A vivid character portrait buoyed by breathtakingly fast and furious imagery that brings the viewer directly into the mind (and ski boots) of the competitor. Rated PG-13 All Seats ONLY $5
