Fill-In-The-Blank

My favorite thing about visiting the museum today is _____

Create a self-portrait in the Maker Space!

Discover

What is this a close-up of?

Fill-in-the-blank:

These artists used _____, _____ and _____ to make this artwork.

This show explores how we understand gender, discusses stereotypes and invites us to think about how the roles we play shape who we are.

What are some of the roles you play?

Find these artworks in the gallery:

Role Play: Transform into a mirror! Stand in front of one of the boxers and reflect back the EXACT same expression and stance you see. Hold your pose for 8 seconds!

Draw an emoji of how you felt:

Stereotypes are overly simple assumptions about people that don't reveal the whole truth.

Can you think of a time when you assumed something about someone and learned you were wrong?

Explain what you think is going on in this photo:

Design protective armor that would make you feel good in your own skin every time you wore it:

This artist plays with the idea that how we cover up says something about who we are and the way we feel on the inside.

Imagine what it feels like to wear this hat! What words describe this sculpture?

• What materials does this artist use?

Practice Finger Knitting!

Follow these directions with string, yarn or even long strips of fabric.

Challenge: Draw the space around the objects. Instead of drawing the body builder or the urinal, draw the shape of the background.

Do you think the same artist made both of these artworks?

YES because _____

NO because _____

What do both artworks have in common? _____
