

Sun Valley Center for the Arts

ANNUAL IMPACT REPORT

Local students marvel at their classmates' creations during the 2018–2019 Classroom Enrichment Student Exhibition: Deepen the Discussion.

WE BELIEVE

THE ARTS ARE ESSENTIAL

Each year, as we prepare the Sun Valley Center for the Arts' Annual Impact Report, I take a moment to reflect on the past year as I also look toward the future. We recently invited our staff, board, and community to participate in an assessment of our organization's value and provide suggestions for improvement. The responses we received produced valuable insights that have shaped our Strategic Plan for the next three years. The process also made it apparent that our mission—to enrich our community through transformative arts and educational experiences—is as relevant as ever.

The Center started as an idea—the idea that while outdoor recreation would drive tourism in Sun Valley, the arts would build community. And they have. As the valley has established itself as a world-class destination for recreation, it has also seen the emergence of a vibrant art scene that is a source of pride for all who live and visit here. In large part, this is because of the commitment The Center made nearly 50 years ago to build community through the arts.

I am excited to share some of the goals of our new Strategic Plan. As always, The Center is committed to eliminating barriers to engagement with the arts. We're achieving this by installing a new hearing assistance system at the Liberty Theatre, offering a wider range of ticket prices for events, and introducing more entry-level art classes. Additionally, new free programming addresses the needs of families with very young children as well as K–12 students, and we have initiated a museum-based art therapy program for community members with cognitive and sensorimotor challenges.

As we broaden our vision for the museum and the theatre, we are thinking beyond the physical limits of our buildings. We are redefining traditional ideas about the museum and the theatre to create spaces and programs that are dynamic, inclusive, hands-on and exploratory. In response to community feedback, we have created a vision for the future that inspires creativity through engaging and enriching educational programs for learners of all ages. And as we've begun to implement that vision, the community has responded through participation. The Center is bursting at the seams with attendees at classes and exhibition tours, sold-out lectures and performances, BIG IDEA programs, and, of course, Company of Fools' professional theatre productions.

It is with heartfelt gratitude that I thank you for allowing us to be a part of your creative life over the last year, as well as the last 50. I hope you will join me in the coming year to reflect further on our journey together, and to celebrate the importance of arts and culture in supporting the foundation of our strong and vibrant community.

Christine Davis-Jeffers
Executive Director

TRANSFORMING PERSPECTIVES

“ BEGIN WITH ART, because art tries to TAKE US OUTSIDE OURSELVES. It is a matter of trying to create an atmosphere and context so conversation can flow back and forth and we can be influenced by each other. ”

—W. E. B. Du Bois

The arts bring us together in conversation. The arts create dialogue, build connections and help us define our place in the world. Much of the Sun Valley Center for the Arts' programming is built around themes, or BIG IDEAS, that are relevant to the world today. Topics can be serious or playful, but they are always designed to engage the entire community and get everyone talking. BIG IDEA projects are multidisciplinary in nature—connecting film and Company of Fools theatre, museum exhibitions and lectures, music and classes. You can participate in a single event or go deeper, exploring the idea through different lenses that speak to you.

BUILDING & ENRICHING OUR COMMUNITY

THE ARTS EMPOWER. The arts give a voice to the voiceless. The arts help TRANSFORM AMERICAN COMMUNITIES and, as I often say, the result can be a better child, a better town, a better nation and certainly A BETTER WORLD. Let's champion our arts action heroes, emulate them and make our communities everything we want them to be.

—Robert L. Lynch
President and CEO, Americans for the Arts

The Sun Valley Center for the Arts offers experiences that educate, engage, and inspire a community—through all art forms. We are committed to arts education, facilitating lifelong learning for all ages and all members of our community. Our multi-disciplinary approach allows us to provide arts experiences that spark conversations, create opportunities for the exploration and exchange of ideas, and build connections in our community. Arts education is powerful. It can break through barriers and expand one's point of view, igniting imagination, empowering action and inspiring change—at home or across the globe.

INSPIRING CREATIVITY

Thank you so much for coming to our school.
I learned that you can act with body movements better than talking.

Sincerely,
Edie

Investing in our youth is at the core of Center programs and we are deeply invested in K–12 arts education programming. Our classroom enrichment program, implemented in collaboration with the Blaine County School District, integrates the arts into secondary core subjects such as math, science, and English. Embracing art’s innate qualities as a learning and exploratory tool, the enrichment program aims to build student confidence, increase improvisational skills, facilitate opportunities for self-expression, improve problem-solving, and develop empathy.

CULTIVATING CURIOSITY

“ Art is a way to INTERACT and COMMUNICATE. It provides an opportunity to project onto paper or canvas or into the clay, to EXPLORE and to CONTINUE LEARNING. ”

—Jordyn Dooley,
Art Therapist & Enrichment Educator, Art-P, LPCi,
Sun Valley Center for the Arts

At the Sun Valley Center for the Arts, we champion the importance of lifelong learning opportunities for curious thinkers of all ages. One of our new programs, a Museum-based Art Therapy Workshop, is designed especially for adults experiencing changes in their cognitive and sensorimotor abilities. Participants explore the Sun Valley Center for the Arts' visual arts exhibitions through experiences facilitated inside the museum. These experiences are designed to engage participants in activities that promote individual, social, and educational goals for transformation, encouraging learners of all ages to explore ideas and concepts that spark their curiosity and creativity.

FOSTERING EMPATHY

“ I think we have an insatiable appetite to UNDERSTAND OUR RELEVANCE; in context of our human relationships and our existence. Theatre is a moment where we stop our lives long enough to REFLECT OFF EACH OTHER. Ultimately, that leads to context which—in turns—GIVES PERSPECTIVE on life and circumstances. ”

—James Houghton,
former Director of Drama at The Juilliard School

In May 1992, Company of Fools was founded in response to an essay titled “The Vision of the Fool” by visual artist Cecil Collins. In Collins’ essay, the fool embodies truth, joy, creativity, and a childlike wonder at all that is magical and mysterious. The Company’s founders articulated a vision of a theatre company that embodied the qualities of the fool and was vital to its community. Company of Fools still operates with this belief to this day, and every production brought to the stage carries lessons of joy, love, empathy, and the human experience.

Company of Fools’ productions like Crimes of the Heart invite the audience to be in the moment, to feel, laugh and cry along with the actors.

ENGAGING EXPERIENCES

“ The Sun Valley Center for the Arts is at THE HEART of what makes our COMMUNITY SO MAGICAL. ”

—Nancy Fenn,
Center Member and Wood River Valley Resident

“ I’m constantly amazed by The Center’s ability to BRING THE BEST OF CITY LIVING to our isolated, natural sanctuary. IT’S HEAVEN. ”

—Michel Sewell,
Educator, Wood River High School

The arts give us a place to gather, engage, and share experiences. Whether it’s enjoying a summer concert, listening to a lecture, making jewelry with our friends, or playing with our kids at a Family Day at the museum, the arts provide opportunities to share meaningful moments and create memories with those closest to us, as well as those we may have just met. We are not here to be didactic teachers; we are here to facilitate human connection and encourage our participants to think about something that deeply matters. Attending a Sun Valley Center for the Arts program is not a passive activity; it is an active experience—fun, energizing, and thought-provoking.

THANK YOU
for your support!

The Sun Valley Center for the Arts enriches our community through transformative arts and educational experiences. We are so grateful for the support of all the individuals, businesses, and foundations who believe in the impact the arts make in the lives of individuals, our community, and society at large.

Your contribution makes a difference in our community and beyond.

During Family Day, as part of the BIG IDEA project and Visual Arts Exhibition We the People: Protest and Patriotism, families explore what it means to participate in a democracy.

* THANK YOU to outgoing board, advisory council and committee members Gary Borman, Peter Palmedo, Russell Notides, and Sarah Woodward, whose dedication to the organization resulted in deeper community impact.

A special thank you to Dev Khalsa Photography and Kirsten Shultz Photography for the beautiful images they captured throughout the year.

The Sun Valley Center for the Arts is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. Only 5% of all museums in the U.S. (including four other museums in Idaho) have earned AAM accreditation.

In 2019, Company of Fools became the first theatre in Idaho to join the National New Play Network, America's premier organization promoting new American plays. Also in 2019, Company of Fools became the first theatre in Idaho to join Theatre Development Fund's Autism-Friendly Theatre Network. TDF advocates for accessible live theatre and performing arts experiences for patrons with a range of spectrum or sensory disorders. Company of Fools will offer "sensory friendly" performances throughout our season, specifically designed for audience members with autism spectrum disorders or other sensitivity issues. Special thanks to TDF's National Autism-Friendly Performance Training Program for serving as an advisor on this new initiative.

Company of Fools is a proud member of the Theatre Communications Group, an organization that strengthens, nurtures and promotes professional nonprofit theatre in the U.S.

THE ARTS MAKE AN IMPACT ON US & OUR FUTURE.

As we look forward to our 50th Anniversary, all of us at the Sun Valley Center for the Arts are excited to share our vision for the future of arts and culture in the community.

STAY TUNED!
